

HNC Cyber Security: Graded Unit

Introduction to HNC Cyber Security

- Overview of HNC Cyber Security
- Importance of Cyber Security
- Study and more study
- Revision each week with task completion

Study and Research Skills in HNC Cyber Security

- Effective study habits
- Research skills
- Time management

Core Areas of Cyber Security

- J0HJ 34 Computer Networking: Concepts, Practice and Introduction to Security (SCQF level 7)
- J0H9 34 Data Security (SCQF level 7)
- J0HL 34 Digital Forensics (SCQF level 7)
- J0HK 34 Ethical Hacking (SCQF level 7)

Graded Unit Assessment

- This graded unit will be assessed by the use of a timed, closed-book examination.
- Assessment is an examination lasting three hours.
- Examination designed to assess the learner's critical knowledge and understanding of the topics relating to the specific aims that this graded unit is designed to cover.
- Marked out of 100.
- Only whole marks will be provided.

In short

- Importance of the Graded Unit
- Essential Study
- Tasks to assist with preparation for exam
- Deadlines for tasks must be met
- Examination prior to end of the academic year